

PROGRAMME – Doctors Session

State-of-the art oncological surgery for the patient with colon cancer

27 March 2020

07:40–08:10 Registration and breakfast

	Session 1 – What is the challenge?
08:10–08:30	THE PATIENT: Two patients presenting their experiences going through treatment for colon cancer
08:30–09:10	THE SURGEON: The impact of surgery on morbidity and mortality in colorectal cancer surgery	Conor Delaney
09:10–09:40	THE ANESTHESIOLOGIST: Can anesthesia/analgesia during cancer surgery affect recurrence or metastasis?	Donal Buggy

09:40–10:00 Coffee Break

	Session 2 – Live Surgery
10:00–12:30	Case presentations Live Surgery OR1: Right-sided colon cancer surgery (CME with Intracorporeal Anastomosis) OR2: Left-sided colon cancer surgery (CME with use of quantitative ICG perfusion) OR3: Combined endoscopic laparoscopic technique for colon cancer	Ismail Gögenur

12:30–13:15 Lunch

	Session 3 – What is the solution?
13:15–13:40	ERAS: State-of-the-art perioperative care	Henrik Kehlet
13:40–14:05	Surgery in Stage I-III: CME surgery	Anders Bertelsen
14:05–14:30	Surgery in Stage IV: Primary tumor resection	Georg Chang
14:30–14:55	Chemotherapy: Adjuvant treatment option for the patient with colon cancer. Is neoadjuvant treatment for the colon cancer 'prime-time'?	Dion Morton
14:55–15:05	Panel discussion

15:05 – 15:30 Coffee Break

Session 4 – Where to go in the future

15:30–15:50	The prospective randomized clinical trial: The Dutch Perspective	Pieter Tanis
15:50–16:10	The prospective randomized clinical trial: The UK Perspective	Dion Morton
16:10–16:30	Is Big Data the solution? Technological advances in perioperative care	Georg Chang
16:30–16:50	Is Big Data the solution? Personalized medicine in colon cancer	Ismail Gögenur

16:50–17:00	Closing Remarks	Henrik Møller
17:00–18:00	Drinks and networking

PROGRAMME – Nurses Session

Opportunities and challenges when forming relations with patients

27 March 2020

07:40–09:00	Registration and breakfast
09:00–09:10	Session 1 – When time is short Welcome	Ole Toftdahl Sørensen
09:10–09:55	Shitty nursing	Gunilla Borglin
09:55–10:25	Time – making the best of it	Karin Bundgaard
10:25–10:40	Discussion
10:40–11:10	Coffee Break
11:10–11:40	Session 2 – Mind the gap Patient participation on nursing wards and the bedside handover	Simon Malfait
11:40–12:10	What patients want	Anne Beck
12:10–12:40	Enhanced rehabilitation after abdominal surgery	Karina Nyholm
12:40–13:00	Discussion
13:00–14:00	Lunch
14:00–14:45	Session 3 – Relations Different nursing handover styles for hospitalized patients	Marian Smeulers
14:45–15:15	Moments of beauty in nursing	Sine Herholdt
15:15–15:35	Discussion
15:35 – 16:00	Coffee Break
16:00–16:55	Session 4 – Patient's perspective Patient's perspective	Gisela Schjøtt
16:55–17:00	Closing Remarks	Ole Toftdahl Sørensen
17:00–18:00	Drinks and networking	