

Second Scandinavian
Baltic Pancreas
Symposium & Second International
OPAC Symposium

Hindsgavl Castle, Middelfart Denmark

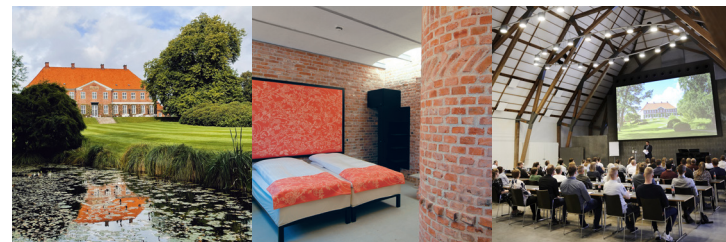

September 30 – October 1, 2022

Odense Pancreas Center (OPAC, Odense University Hospital), Center for Pancreatic Diseases (Aalborg University Hospital) and Pancreatitis Centre East (PACE, Hvidovre University Hospital) are happy to announce the combined Second Scandinavian Baltic Pancreas Symposium and Second International OPAC Symposium.

The symposium will cover several aspects of benign and malignant pancreatic diseases, but with special focus on Chronic Pancreatitis, Hypoglycemia and Pancreatic Cancer.

The Symposium is open to all with an interest in pancreatic diseases, and abstracts within all kind of pancreatic research areas are welcome.

State-of-the-Art Lectures by International Experts

- Clinical aspects of autoimmune pancreatitis
- Imaging in chronic pancreatitis
- Pain management of acute and chronic pancreatitis
- Pancreatic cancer – including robot assisted surgery, radiotherapy, neoadjuvant treatment, histologic tumor regression grading, personalized medicine, pain management, Danish database
- Update on WHO classification of pancreatic neoplasms
- New medical treatment of hyperinsulinism
- Cell therapy providing a curative treatment for type 1 diabetes?
- Pancreatic neuroendocrine neoplasms

Meet the Experts

Hot Topics in pancreatic diseases discussed between participants and leading experts

Rising Stars

Selected young scientists will present new pancreatic research results

Abstracts, Poster Exhibition and Awards

Submitted abstracts will be reviewed by the abstract committee and the best posters are awarded and will be presented orally

Walk & Talk at Hindsøgløkke Castle

Test your Knowledge on Pancreatic Diseases

QR based competition

Centre for Pancreatic Diseases

www.OPAC.nu

International Faculty

Miroslav Vujasinovic, Stockholm

Christian Benzing, Berlin

Volkan Adsay, Istanbul

Indi Banerjee, Manchester

Yama Issa, Amsterdam

Caroline Verbeke, Oslo

Lars Lundell, Göteborg

Evgenia Globa, Ukraine

Patients and Relatives

Patient Networks

Exhibition

Centre for Pancreatic Diseases

www.OPAC.nu

www.OPAC.nu